

2007 SHIRAZ REVIEWS

	AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION – 2011 Edition JAMES HALLIDAY 93 Points
	THE AGE, Epicure, Tuesday May 25th 2010 SHIRAZ is the contemporary success story of the Mornington Peninsula, especially given maturing vineyards and a succession of warm vintages. This example has a succulent core of juicy berry fruit, with some gentle spice. It's less giving and more structured in the mouth than most in the region, finishing desert dry. RALPH KYTE-POWELL
	THE WEEKLY REVIEW, 7th June 2010 This complex, cool-climate shiraz is excellent value. It has aromas of blackberries, dark cherries, mocha and cloves along with meaty and funky truffle notes. Medium bodied, it has meaty, sweet blackberry flavours with a little bit of pepper spice and a long, savoury finish. BEN THOMAS
	The Age, A2 Magazine, Saturday April 10,2010 This is very fragrant and floral with a core of red and black fruits. Its builds with a savoury Vegemite note and a flourish of Asian spices. Very fine tannins, tangy, moreish acidity and it's nicely balanced. It's still young and tight, although more approachable with a decent decant. A good one to put away for a few years. JANE FAULKNER
