

Quartier Pinot Noir 2017 – Reviews

The Wine Front, December 2018

Campbell Mattinson

Quartier certainly hasn't missed out on the 2017 party. We have a beautiful drinking pinot noir here. Beautifully styled, flavoured and priced. It's herby and spicy but it's rushed with sweet/tangy/savoury fruit. It's cut with mouth-watering acidity in a seamless, positive, integrated way. It lingers in a lovely manner. And a gentle smokiness adds to the aftertaste. It is spot on. Buy, drink, be happy. Absolutely recommended.

93 points

Good Wine Guide 2019

Jeremy Oliver

Elegant and savoury, scents of red flowers, cherries and spices; smooth and supple; plush red and blue fruits over a powdery spine.

92 points