

Port Phillip Estate Balnarring Chardonnay 2018 – Reviews

The Wine Front, July 2019

Campbell Mattinson

Composed and well-powered. Port Phillip Estate never puts a foot wrong. Lime, white peach, cedarwood, pear and subtle custard powder characters pour confidently through the palate. The finish is still working itself out but it's well on its way. No question of the quality here.

92+ points