

Quartier Pinot Noir 2018 – Reviews

The West Australian, August 2019

Ray Jordan

Attractive modestly priced pinot from Mornington. Sour cherry notes on the nose. The palate is light bodied but with excellent structure and depth. Has a slightly bony feel to it with supple flesh wrapped around the fine tannins. Nice pinot at a good price.

90 points