

Beurrot by Kooyong 2019 – Reviews

The Halliday Australian Wine Companion 2021

James Halliday

Beurrot is a very old Burgundian name for pinot gris, a variety that can be grown there. Here the grapes were whole-bunch pressed to old oak, wild-fermented and bottled without fining. The cool climate and vinification have produced a wine of considerable flavour and character.

94 points