

Port Phillip Estate Pinot Noir Nouveau 2021 – Reviews

The WineFront, October 2021

The 2020 was decent but this is a step up. Good times to be had here. It's light but it has some presence, and some character. Strawberry and red cherry flavours with twig and herb notes tossed through. Smoky reduction put to positive effect. A keen tension throughout, aided by a light line of acidity. Bang on. Lovely.
