

Kooyong Meres Pinot Noir 2021 – Reviews

Vinous, May 2023

Fragrant and enticing with lifted watermelon and cranberry aromas. Silky and gently weighted, it shows admirable layers of red fruit flavours. Silky tannins drive a lingering finish.

As with all the single-block wines, shyness of flavour is a theme, it's the vintage and lots of poppy acidity. Certainly refreshing, almost delicate with its varietal inputs, lightly spiced and flavoured. While not typical of Meres, it's lovely to drink anyway.

Raspberry and strawberry, roses, a little spice. It's a light wine, and quite pretty, fine dusty almost peppery tannin, cherry pip and raw almond, slight greenness, a little shuddery in tannin on the finish, with decent length, a charming wine.
