

Massale by Kooyong 2023 – Reviews

It's spicy, a little wheaty and nutty, cherry, and plum, some dried herb, orange rind too. Medium-bodied, with grainy graphite tannin, some sap in with the bright cherry, rhubarb, and strawberry on a finish of good length. It's a complex wine, not your run-of-the-mill Pinot Noir for sure, and it's good to drink.

Bright red fruits open on the nose with characters of raspberry and sour cherry emerging. The light bodied palate carries plenty of fruit intensity supported by a chalky tannin and light oak influence. Sensational mouth feel showing wonderful integration to present seamlessly and very long.

Cherry red and lively in the glass. Complex aromas of dark cherry, blueberry, dried herbs, sap, spice and dried flowers. Bright, red and blue fruited, with plenty of crunch, spice and textured tannins. Long, layered and very satisfying drinking.

A terrific Massale this vintage with its cherry accents, wild strawberries, an abundance of warm spices and a heady fragrance of autumn leaves. It's light and bright with fine tannins and crunchy, refreshing acidity. Very satisfying.

Blueberry and blackberry fruit with red-berry acidity. A little bit of thyme, dried dill. Neat and mouth-watering. Everything in place. Drinkability off the scale. For thirsty days.
