

Port Phillip Estate Amber Pinot Gris 2024 – Reviews

The WineFront, February 2025

Gary Walsh

Nashi pear, blood orange and peel, a musky and rosy perfume, a smattering of amaro herbs and spice. It's juicy with a lightly viscous and glossy feel, balanced crunchy acidity, a lovely light powdery grip, and the finish is perfumed and long. It's an orange wine, but in a lighter more approachable style than some. Excellent. I love it.

94 points

WBM

Mike Bennie

93 points