

Quartier Pinot Noir 2025 – Reviews

The WineFront, April 2026

Gary Walsh

Quartier Pinot Noir is always a solid drink. Red fruits, woody spice, slightly floral. It's medium-bodied, strawberry and raspberry, a light autumnal character, balanced cranberry acidity, a light suede grip to tannin, a little sappy, with a crisp finish of good length. It's light and easy to drink and does the job nicely. Refreshing.
